React Native Developer

ABOUT ME

6 years of experience as a React and React Native developer working for corporate and enterprise level clients. I am very confident in my ability to adopt new skills and eager to do so. I am experienced with real world development problems, and can offer my experience in debugging, fixing, and optimizing mobile apps at a production level. I am an outstanding team player, and I am always the first to step up to a leadership role as a compassionate and hard-working individual.
